

Elizabeth C. Goldberg
Curriculum Vitae

CONTACT INFORMATION

484-201-8183 (work)
elizabeth@twelvepointbold.com
www.twelvepointbold.com

EDUCATION

2002-2003	New York University	M.A., Journalism
1997-1999	Harvard University	B.A., American government
1996	London School of Economics	British public policy
1994-1995	Oberlin College	American politics

WRITING AND EDITING EXPERIENCE

2010-current	Twelve Point Bold	Founder Provide professional developmental editing, copyediting, and writing services.
2005-2008	The American Lawyer	Staff reporter Wrote features on law firm management and the business of law for the nation's leading legal affairs magazine. Authored the annual "associate's guide."
2004-2005	Long Island Press	Political correspondent Wrote weekly features and cover stories for an independent weekly newspaper. Authored the annual voter's guide and "power list" of influential Long Islanders.
2004	City Limits Magazine	Urban affairs fellow Covered New York City politics, economic development, and housing.
2003	Newsday & New York Observer	Reporting intern Covered breaking news, crime, politics, and human interest. Performed general copyediting and fact checking.
2000-2002	Trust for Public Land	Development associate Wrote funding requests for major grants from foundations and government agencies for a national land conservation organization. Wrote and edited grant reports and nationally distributed marketing materials.
2000-1999	National Charities Information Bureau	Research analyst Wrote and edited public research reports and private nonprofit assessments for an independent charity watchdog.
1996	Scottish National Party, House of Commons	Public relations intern Worked for the whip's office of the SNP in the British parliament. Wrote policy reports, research papers, and press releases.

RECENT EDITING WORK

- Edited a political science book to be published by Cambridge University Press
- Edited several chapters of a history book to be published by Columbia University Press
- Edited a book manuscript by a scholar at Georgetown University
- Edited book proposals for scholars at Villanova University and the University of Pennsylvania
- Converted a lengthy Ph.D. thesis into an article now under review at an academic journal
- Edited a scholarly conference paper
- Wrote a public relations piece for a large regional bank
- Edited a fictional memoir by a first-time novelist

SELECTED JOURNALISTIC WORK

- “Gray Matters” – The American Lawyer, December 2007
Feature about law firms’ response to aging of the Baby Boomer workforce
- “Open Season” – The American Lawyer, August 2007
Cover story about recruitment of law students by large firms
- “The Departed” – The American Lawyer, May 2007
Feature analyzing business strategies behind partner dismissals
- “Exit Strategy” – The American Lawyer, August 2006
Feature investigating associate attrition at large firms
- “High Costs, Low Benefits” – Long Island Press, July 2005
Cover story about the state of New York’s worker compensation program
- “Pharmaceutical Fakery” – Long Island Press, June 2005
Cover story about the dangers of counterfeit pharmaceuticals
- “Do Not Disturb” – Long Island Press, October 2004
Cover story about how New York State’s electoral laws benefit incumbents
- “Burden Does Brooklyn” – New York Observer, August 2003
Feature about New York’s city planning czar, Amanda Burden

AWARDS/HONORS

2005	Press Club of Long Island Media Award (“This Is Affordable Housing,” Long Island Press , September 2004)
2002-2003	New York Observer Arthur Carter Fellow (award given to a master’s degree candidate in journalism at NYU that provides full tuition remission and a stipend)
1999	Phi Beta Kappa, Harvard College
1997-1999	Dean’s list, Harvard College